Contract for Differences (CFDs)

Trading in CFDs requires prior approval by CSSI and SCML. Depending on the nature of the CFD traded (Stock, Index, Commodity, Forex, Bond) different commission rates and minimum commission rates may apply to those listed below. In addition to these charges there will also be a financing charge. Trading CFDs in UK stocks does not attract stamp duty under current UK tax legislation. The Compliance charge is not levied on Commodity CFD trades. Holding stock CFD's for extended periods will result in the receipt of dividend payments when going long, or the requirement to fund the dividend if going short. Index CFD charges can vary depending on the home market and currency of the index. Dividend payments on stock held within an index will be credit for long positions and debited for short and the index CFD will be price adjusted to reflect the dividend.

- Single stock CFDs @0.50% of notional consideration
- Index CFDs @0.15% of notional index value
- Minimum charge per trade £10 (£50 flat fee for Commodity CFD)
- Daily financing charge on long positions 3.5% over Libor
- Daily financing charge on short positions -2.5% over Libor
- Compliance charge (no charge on Commodity CFD) £20.00

Share Example:

	Long Share CFD			Short Share CFD
	Long Open	Close		Short Open	Close
Number of Shares	1,500	1,500		5,000	5,000
Price of Share	£1.00	£1.10		£1.00	£0.90
Underlying Value	£1,500.00	£1,650.00	£150.00	£5,000.00	£4,500.00	£500.00
Commission	add	£7.50	£8.25	less	£50.00	£45.00	£95.00
Minimum comm. applied	add	£10.00	£10.00			£20.00
Compliance charge	add	£20.00	£20.00	less	£20.00	£20.00	£40.00
Trading Profit/Loss			£90.00			£365.00

Overnight financing also applies. When you hold a position overnight, you'll pay LIBOR + 3.5%. For example, let's assume you hold a £10,000 position in BP, and that LIBOR is 0.75%. This means that you'll pay 4.25% per year of the total position size if you hold overnight. This means that you'll pay just £1.16p per night.

Forex Trading

Trading in leverage Foreign Exchange products requires prior account approval by CSSI and SCML. Minimum market size orders may apply. Trading below minimum trading thresholds will incur a minimum commission charge of $10.

- Financing – All major currencies 2-5 pips
- No Compliance charge

Pips are a “percentage in point” or “price interest point” (pip) unit of change in an exchange rate of a currency pair. The major currencies, with the notable exception of the Japanese yen, are traditionally priced to four decimal places, and a pip is one unit of the fourth decimal point: for dollar currencies this is to 1/100th of a cent. For the yen, a pip is one unit of the second decimal point, because the yen is much closer in value to one hundredth of other major currencies.

Additional Information

Trading in certain stocks and CFDs can attract other additional costs and charges. For example, there will be a minimum charge of £50 for US share & CFD trades where the share price is under $10 per share, shares held as an ADR may attract additional fees. Trading in non-SETs stocks on the London Stock Exchange will incur a minimum charge of £40. There may be a minimum market size to undertake trading in some securities.

Please ask your broker for details if you are unsure of the full costs you will incur when trading through us. Alternatively you can view a fee breakdown for each country and type of transactions by logging into your account on the Saxo trading platform (fees and charges information can be found under the "Trading Conditions" tab). Fees and charges are subject to change and you will receive advance notice of any fee change under the terms of your agreements with SCML and CSSI.

Tax treatment may be subject to change in the future. With CFDs an interest premium is charged on long positions held overnight. For short positions, the interest is payable to you. The calculation of any interest on cash balances held is determined by your account's "Net Free Equity" figure the calculation of which is detailed in the SCML "Commissions, Charges & Margin Schedule" document. Interest is payable subject to a minimum account balance.

Saxo Capital Markets UK Limited, pay a percentage of any commission, fees, and other income to CSSI as a result of your trading under the terms of the agreement between SCML and CSSI. As a result of this commission sharing arrangement you may be subject to trading commissions which are above or below the standard trading commissions outlined in the SCML "Commissions, Charges & Margin Schedule" and in the "Rate & Conditions Schedule" outlined on SCML website.

Trading in the products and services offered by Collins Sarri Statham Investments Ltd may, result in losses as well as profits as the value of investments may go down as well as up. You may not get back the full amount you have invested. Investments held in overseas markets are subject to the effects of changes in exchange rates which will impact on the value of the underlying investment. Investments made in AIM and penny shares carry an increased risk due to the difficulty in creating a market in these shares. There may be a substantial difference in the buy and sell price. Leveraged products such as Contracts for Difference (CFDs), derivatives, commodities & Foreign Exchange (FX), carry a higher risk to your capital. They can lose their value rapidly and you may lose substantially more than your initial investment.
